NOTES TO INTERIM CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

International Container Terminal Services, Inc. (ICTSI or the Parent Company) was incorporated in the Philippines and registered with the Philippine Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on December 24, 1987. 1.2 Port Operations

ICTSI and subsidiaries (collectively referred to as “the Group”) entered into various concessions of port operations which include development, management, and operation of container terminals and related facilities around the world. To date, the Group is involved in 33 terminal operations, including concessions and port development projects, in 19 countries worldwide. There are 10 terminal operations in the Philippines (including an inland container terminal, a barge terminal and combined terminal operations in Subic), four (4) in Brazil (including an intermodal rail ramp terminal and a Customs-bonded facility), two (2) each in Papua New Guinea (PNG) and Indonesia, one (1) each in China, Ecuador, Poland, Georgia, Madagascar, Croatia, Mexico, Honduras, Iraq, Argentina, Colombia, Democratic Republic (DR) of Congo, Australia, Cameroon and Nigeria.

Concessions for port operations entered into, acquired, extended, disposed and expired during the last two years are summarized below:

Acquisition and Extension of Concessions

Zambales, Philippines. On October 3, 2025, Subic Bay International Terminals Corp. and ICTSI Subic Inc., subsidiaries of ICTSI, have been granted an extension of their respective concessions by the Subic Bay Metropolitan Authority. These extensions will allow the continued operation and management of New Container Terminals 1 and 2 (NCT-1 and NCT-2) in Subic Bay Freeport Zone, Zambales until 2058.

Batu Ampar Container Terminal, Indonesia. On July 31, 2025, ICTSI, through its 75% owned subsidiary, PT Batu Ampar Container Terminal (BACT), signed an agreement with PT Batam Terminal Petikamas (BTP), a subsidiary of an Indonesian Government State-owned Entity (SOE), to operate and develop Batu Ampar Container Terminal (Batam Terminal) in Batam Island, Indonesia for 30 years. On September 1, 2025, BACT took over the operations of Batam Terminal.

Port of Kribi, Cameroon. In January 2025, the Port Authority of Kribi agreed to extend the concession agreement for the development, operation and maintenance activities of the multipurpose terminal at the Port of Kribi by Kribi Multipurpose Terminal (KMT) for another five (5) years. The amended agreement will expire in 2050.

Mindanao Container Terminal, Philippines. In December 2024, Mindanao International Container Terminal Services, Inc. (MICTSI) was granted by PHIVIDEC Industrial Authority an extension of its concession term to operate and manage the Mindanao Container Terminal (MCT) for another 25 years, from 2033 to 2058.

Tanjung Pakis Lamongan Public Terminal, East Java, Indonesia. On December 17, 2024, PT Lamongan Integrated Shorebase granted an extension of concession right to operate a multi-purpose terminal in Lamongan Regency, East Java, Indonesia held by PT East Java Development (EJD), for additional seven (7) years or until December 31, 2072.

Iloilo Commercial Port Complex (ICPC), Philippines. In January 2024, the Philippine Ports Authority (PPA) has awarded to ICTSI the 25-year contract to develop and operate the ICPC. In April 2024, the Group received from the PPA the notice to proceed and the 25-year ICPC port management contract was entered between ICTSI and PPA on the same date.

South Cotabato, Philippines. On February 20, 2006, the PPA granted South Cotabato Integrated Port Services, Inc. (SCIPSI) a ten-year contract for the exclusive management and operation of arrastre, stevedoring, and other cargo handling services, except portage, at Makar Wharf, Port of General Santos, General Santos City in the Philippines that expired on February 19, 2016. Thereafter, the PPA granted SCIPSI a series of Hold-over-Authority (HOA) on a temporary basis over the cargo handling services at Makar Wharf, Port of General Santos. The HOA may be pre-terminated upon the award of a new contract by the PPA or revoked for a reason by the PPA. As at November 6, 2025, SCIPSI continues to operate and has submitted a letter of intent including the requirements for the issuance of a new HOA.

Disposal and Expiration of Concessions

Jakarta, Indonesia. On January 22, 2024, ICTSI, through its wholly owned subsidiary, ICTSI Far East Pte. Ltd. (IFEL), signed a Conditional Share Sale and Purchase Agreement with PT Sarana Kelola Investa in connection with the sale of 80.19% stocks of PT ICTSI Jasa Prima Tbk (IJP) for US$2.0 million, the Company's listed subsidiary in Indonesia which owns PT PBM Olah Jasa Andal (OJA), which in turn has an equipment supply cooperation agreement with PT Pelabuhan Indonesia II (Pelindo II) at the Port of Tanjung Priok in Jakarta, Indonesia. The sale of IJP stocks closed on February 1, 2024 and resulted to a loss on sale of IJP and OJA amounting to US$1.6 million.

1.3 Acquisition of FII Inhaúma (Inhaúma Fundo de Investimento Imobiliário – FII or “the Fund”)

In April 2025, ICTSI, through its wholly owned subsidiary, ICTSI Americas B.V. (“IABV”), acquired 47% ownership interest in the Fund for BRL459.8 million (US$79.2 million). The Fund owns a marine property in Brazil and leases it out to ICTSI Rio Brasil Terminal 1 S.A. (“ICTSI Rio”), another wholly owned subsidiary of ICTSI, for at least 30 years. The remaining 53% interest in the Fund is subject to a combination of put and call options. The Fund's non-controlling interests have been granted a put option to sell their 53% holdings in totality to ICTSI. The put is exercisable starting from 2026. On the other hand, IABV has been granted a call option to buy the remaining 53% ownership stake of the Fund in totality. The call is exercisable beginning 2036. IABV intends to exercise the call if the non-controlling interests fail to exercise the put. The call enables the Group to manage the return derived from the marine property by the time the aforementioned lease agreement ends (e.g., managing its re-leasing or sale). With this, the Group determined that it has obtained control of the Fund and consequently, accounted for the acquisition as acquisition of a basket of assets.

Upon consolidation of the Fund, the Group derecognized the right-of-use asset and lease liability relating to the lease and recognized the marine property as part of the Group's property and equipment.

In July 2025, IABV purchased additional 26% ownership interest in the Fund for BRL254.5 million (US$45.7 million). This brought the Group's total ownership stake in the Fund to 73%. The excess of the carrying value of the acquired 26% non-controlling interest over the said purchase price amounting to US$1.1 million has been taken to the Parent Company's equity.

The Group recognized a non-current liability measured based on the present value of the strike price of the put option over the remaining 27% ownership interest in the Fund amounting to US$66.8 million as at September 30, 2025. The value of the call option is not material.

2. Basis of Preparation and Statement of Compliance

2.1 Basis of Preparation

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements as at September 30, 2025 and for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2025 have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) and derivative financial instruments which have been measured at fair value. The interim condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in United States dollar (US dollar, USD or US$), the Parent Company's functional currency. All values are rounded to the nearest thousand US dollar unit, except when otherwise indicated. Any discrepancies in the tables between the listed amounts and the totals thereof are due to rounding. Accordingly, figures shown as totals may not be an arithmetic aggregation of the figures that precede them.

2.2 Statement of Compliance

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 have been prepared in accordance with Philippine Accounting Standard (PAS) 34, Interim Financial Reporting. Accordingly, the interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all the information and disclosures required in the audited annual consolidated financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the Group's audited annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2024.

3. Accounting Policies

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Group's annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2024, except for the adoption of the following new accounting pronouncement starting January 1, 2025. The Group has not early adopted any accounting pronouncement that has been issued but is not yet effective.

- Amendments to PAS 21, Lack of Exchangeability

The amendments specify how an entity should assess whether a currency is exchangeable and how it should determine a spot exchange rate when exchangeability is lacking.

The amendments had no impact on the Group because the Group has not encountered any situation where it could not exchange a currency into another currency.

4. Segment Information

The table below presents financial information on geographical segments as at December 31, 2024 (audited) and as at September 30, 2025 (unaudited) and for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 (unaudited) and 2025 (unaudited) (amounts are in thousands, except volume data):

^(b) Interest and other income include the following as shown in the interim condensed consolidated statements of income: interest income; foreign exchange gain; equity in net income of joint ventures; and other income.

^(c) EBITDA is not a uniform or legally defined financial measure. EBITDA is presented because the Group believes it is an important measure of its performance and liquidity. EBITDA is also frequently used by securities analysts, investors, and other interested parties in the evaluation of companies in the industry.

The Group EBITDA figures are not; however, readily comparable with other companies' EBITDA figures as these may be calculated differently thus, must be read in conjunction with related additional explanations. EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of the Group's results as reported under PFRS Accounting Standards. Some of the limitations concerning EBITDA are:

- EBITDA does not reflect cash expenditures or future requirements for capital expenditures or contractual commitments;
- EBITDA does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for working capital needs;
- EBITDA does not reflect fixed (and in-substance fixed) port fees and lease payments that are capitalized as concession assets under IFRIC 12 and right-of-use assets under PFRS 16;
- EBITDA does not reflect the interest expense, or cash requirements necessary to service interest or principal debt payments;
- Although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated or amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and EBITDA does not reflect any cash requirements for such replacements; and
- Other companies in the industry may calculate EBITDA differently, which may limit its usefulness as a comparative measure.

Because of these limitations, EBITDA should not be considered as a measure of discretionary cash available to the Group to invest in the growth of the business. The Group compensates for these limitations by relying primarily on PFRS Accounting Standards results and uses EBITDA only as supplementary information.

5. Intangibles

Concession Rights

Additions to concession rights amounting to US$117.0 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025 mainly pertain to the construction of various civil works and acquisitions of port facilities and equipment in Manila International Container Terminal (MICT) and certain Philippine terminals, Madagascar International Container Terminal Services, Ltd. 14. Contingencies

Due to the nature of the Group's business, it is involved in various legal proceedings, both as plaintiff and defendant, from time to time. Management and its legal counsels believe that the Group has substantial legal and factual bases for its position and is of the opinion that losses arising from the existing legal actions and proceedings, if any, will not have a material adverse impact on the Group's interim condensed consolidated financial position and results of operations.

(ix) On November 29, 2024, ICTSI and ACTSI entered into an agreement for the lease of transportation equipment with a term of 10 years.

(x) These loans were obtained through a series of issuances with terms ranging from five to 12 years from their respective issuance dates, and bear fixed interest rates.

15. Financial Instruments

15.1 Fair Values

Set out below is a comparison of carrying amounts and fair values of the Group's financial instruments by category, whose fair value is different from its carrying amount (amount in thousands):

	December 31, 2024		September 30, 2025
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Financial Liabilities
Long-term debt	US$2,486,819	US$2,432,687	US$2,512,841	US$2,476,198
Concession rights payable	761,854	710,844	748,531	710,139
Put option liability	–	–	66,777	66,443

Carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, receivables, accounts payable and other current liabilities, and loans payable approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturities.

For variable interest-bearing loans repriced monthly or quarterly, their carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the regular repricing of interest rates.

The fair values of the US dollar-denominated notes and US dollar-denominated medium-term notes are based on quoted prices.

The fair values of other liabilities were estimated at the present value of all future cash flows discounted using the applicable rates for similar types of liabilities ranging from 3.20 percent to 16.01 percent as at December 31, 2024 and 3.51 percent to 16.70 percent as at September 30, 2025.

The fair values of derivative assets and liabilities are calculated using valuation techniques with inputs and assumptions that are based on market observable data and conditions.

15.2 Fair Value Hierarchy

The following tables below present the fair value hierarchy of the Group's financial instruments (amount in thousands):

	December 31, 2024

15.3 Hedge Accounting

Cross-Currency Swaps. On March 18, 2025, ICTSI settled all the cross-currency swaps used to hedge the foreign exchange exposure arising from the JPY24.5 billion short-term loan facility. The derivatives had a fair value of US$7.2 million and were in a liability position immediately prior to settlement. Both the cumulative foreign exchange loss on the loan amounting to US$1.0 million, net of US$0.3 million deferred tax, and the effective portion of the cumulative change in the fair value of the derivatives amounting to US$1.0 million, net of US$0.3 million deferred tax, were reclassified to profit or loss upon settlement of the swaps.

16. Other Matters

Impacts of the Macroeconomic, Regulatory and Geopolitical Environment

The Group's financials could be influenced by the effects of the broader macroeconomic, regulatory and geopolitical environment. Fluctuation of US dollar relative to other currencies and rising inflation may affect the Group's reported levels of revenues and profits. The imposition of new tariffs and changes to existing tariffs, along with the possibility of reciprocal tariffs, may impact businesses across industries. Geopolitical conflicts can have major economic impact on the affected regions.

Whilst these developments had no material impact on the Group's business, their scale and duration remain uncertain to date. It is not possible to estimate the impact of the near-term and longer effects of such events. The Group will continue to closely monitor the progress of these situations.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operations

The following discussion and analysis relate to the consolidated financial position and results of operations of ICTSI and its subsidiaries (collectively known as "ICTSI Group") and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes as at and for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025. References to "ICTSI", "the Company", and "Parent Company" pertain to ICTSI Parent Company, whereas references to "the Group" pertain to ICTSI and its subsidiaries.

2.1 Overview

ICTSI is a leading developer, manager and operator of common user origin and destination container terminals serving the global container shipping industry. ICTSI operates in six continents and continues to pursue container terminal opportunities around the world. It also handles general cargoes and provides a number of ancillary services such as storage, container packing and unpacking, inspection, weighing, and services for refrigerated containers or reefers. As at November 6, 2025, the Group is involved in 33 terminal operations, including concessions and port development projects in 19 countries worldwide. There are 10 terminal operations in the Philippines (including an inland container terminal, a barge terminal and combined terminal operations in Subic), four (4) in Brazil (including an intermodal rail ramp terminal and a Customs-bonded facility), two (2) each in Papua New Guinea (PNG) and Indonesia; and one (1) each in China, Ecuador, Poland, Georgia, Madagascar, Croatia, Honduras, Mexico, Iraq, Argentina, Democratic Republic (DR) of the Congo, Colombia, Australia, Cameroon and Nigeria.

ICTSI was established in 1987 in connection with the privatization of Manila International Container Terminal (MICT) in the Port of Manila, and has built upon the experience gained in rehabilitating, developing and operating MICT to establish an extensive international network of efficient and sustainable origin and destination gateway terminals in locations with supportive demographics, a favorable competitive environment and scope for operational improvements. International acquisitions throughout Asia, Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA), and Americas substantially contributed to the growth in the Group's volume, revenues, earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), and net income. ICTSI's business strategy is to continue to develop its existing portfolio of terminals, proactively seek acquisition opportunities that meet its investment criteria while delivering returns to the shareholders.

The Group operates principally in one industry segment which is cargo handling and related services. ICTSI has organized its business into three (3) geographical segments:

Diluted	0.102	0.130	27.5	0.303	0.365	20.5

¹ EBITDA is not a uniform or legally defined financial measure. It generally represents earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. EBITDA is presented because the Group believes it is an important measure of its performance and liquidity. EBITDA is also frequently used by securities analysts, investors and other interested parties in the evaluation of companies in the industry.

The Group's EBITDA figures are not, however, readily comparable with other companies' EBITDA figures as they are calculated differently and thus, must be read in conjunction with related additional explanations. EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of the Group's results as reported under PFRS Accounting Standards. Some of the limitations concerning EBITDA are:

- EBITDA does not reflect cash expenditures or future requirements for capital expenditures or contractual commitments;
- EBITDA does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for working capital needs;
- EBITDA does not reflect fixed (and in-substance fixed) port fees and lease payments that are accounted as concession assets under Philippine Interpretation IFRIC 12, Service Concession Arrangements and right-of-use assets under PFRS 16, Leases;
- EBITDA does not reflect the interest expense, or the cash requirements necessary to service interest and distributions on perpetual securities or principal debt payments and perpetual security redemptions;
- Although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated or amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and EBITDA does not reflect any cash requirements for such replacements; and
- Other companies in the industry may calculate EBITDA differently, which may limit its usefulness as a comparative measure.

Because of these limitations, EBITDA should not be considered as a measure of discretionary cash available to the Group to invest in the growth of the business. The Group compensates for these limitations by relying primarily on the PFRS Accounting Standards results and uses EBITDA only as supplementary information.

² EBIT or Earnings Before Interest and Taxes, is calculated by taking net revenues from port operations and deducting cash operating expenses, and depreciation and amortization.

The following table presents the computation of EBITDA as derived from the Group's unaudited interim condensed consolidated statements of income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 as compared with the same period in 2024:

2.2.2 Key Performance Indicators

Table 2.3 Key Performance Indicators

	For the Nine Months Ended September 30
	2024	2025
Gross moves per hour per crane	14.1 - 37.4	15.7 - 27.8
Crane availability	80.7% - 99.3%	79.8% - 98.2%
Berth utilization	19.9% - 80.2%	28.4% - 99.3%
TEU volume growth	1.6%	11.3%
Gross revenue growth	14.4%	16.1%

The gross moves per hour per crane is a measure of crane productivity while working on vessels during discharging or loading operations. The crane availability relates to the efficiency of the maintenance of the crane. Berth utilization is a measure of how long the berth is utilized for a given period and this indicator measures the efficiency of the operations and the productivity on the vessel.

2.3 Comparison of Operating Results for the Quarters Ended September 30, 2024 and 2025

2.3.1 TEU Volume

The below table presents the volume (in TEU) handled by the Group for the quarters ended September 30, 2024 and 2025:

Table 2.4 Volume

	For the Three Months Ended September 30
	2024	2025	% Change
Asia	1,760,439	1,964,467	11.6
Americas	858,208	1,089,972	27.0
EMEA	673,317	643,614	(4.4)
	3,291,964	3,698,053	12.3

The Group's consolidated volume increased by 12.3 percent to 3,698,053 TEUs for the quarter ended September 30, 2025 from 3,291,964 TEUs for the same period in 2024 mainly due to the volume recovery, with new services, at CGSA; and improvement in trade activities across all terminals in Americas, and certain terminals in Asia, including contribution of BACT that took over port operations in Batam, Indonesia starting September 1, 2025. Excluding impact of new operations in BACT, consolidated volume would have increased by 10.8 percent for the quarter ended September 30, 2025.

Volume from the Asia operations, consisting of terminals in the Philippines, Australia, Papua New Guinea, China and Indonesia, increased by 11.6 percent to 1,964,467 TEUs for the quarter ended September 30, 2025 from 1,760,439 TEUs for the same period in 2024 mainly due to the contribution of BACT; and improvement in trade activities in most of the Philippine terminals, and across all other terminals in Asia. Excluding the contribution of BACT, volume from the Asia segment would have increased by 8.7 percent for the quarter ended September 30, 2025. The Asia operations captured 53.5 percent and 53.1 percent of the consolidated volume for the quarters ended September 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively.

Volume from the Americas segment, consisting of terminals in Mexico, Honduras, Brazil, Ecuador and Argentina, increased by 27.0 percent to 1,089,972 TEUs for the quarter ended September 30, 2025 from 858,208 TEUs for the same period in 2024 mainly due to the volume recovery, with new services, at CGSA; and improvement in trade activities across all other terminals in Americas. The Americas operations accounted for 26.1 percent and 29.5 percent of the consolidated volume for the quarters ended September 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively.

Volume from the EMEA segment, consisting of terminals in DR Congo, Iraq, Madagascar, Poland, Croatia, Nigeria and Georgia decreased by 4.4 percent to 643,614 TEUs for the quarter ended September 30, 2025 from 673,317 TEUs for the same period in 2024 mainly due to the decrease in volume at BCT and BGT; partially tapered by improvement in trade activities largely at OMT and MGT. The loans from local and foreign banks impose certain restrictions with respect to corporate reorganization, disposition of all or a substantial portion of ICTSI's and subsidiaries' assets, acquisitions of futures or certain class of stocks, and extending loans to others, except in the ordinary course of business. ICTSI is also required to comply with a specified financial ratio relating to its debt to EBITDA of up to 4 times when acquiring additional debt.

2.7.2.3 Equity Financing

Perpetual Capital Securities

RCBV engaged in a series of financial transactions involving the issuance, redemption, and consolidation of Senior Guaranteed Perpetual Capital Securities ("Securities"). These Securities are unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by ICTSI and were used to refinance existing debts, fund capital expenditures, and support general corporate purposes.

As at September 30, 2025, the carrying value of the outstanding perpetual capital securities amounted to US$295.1 million.

2.8 Risks

ICTSI and its subsidiaries' geographically diverse operations expose the Group to various market risks, particularly foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and liquidity risk, which movements may materially impact the financial results of the Group. The importance of managing these risks has significantly increased in light of the heightened volatility in both the Philippine and international financial markets.

With a view to managing these risks, the Group has incorporated a financial risk management function in its organization, particularly in the treasury operations.

2.8.1 Foreign Exchange Risk

The Group has geographically diverse operations and transacts in currencies other than its functional currency. Consequently, the Group is exposed to the risk of fluctuation of the exchange rates between the US dollar and other local currencies such as PHP, MXN, BRL, AUD and EUR that may adversely affect its results of operations and financial position. The Group attempts to match its revenues and expenses whenever possible and, from time to time, engages in hedging activities. Changes in exchange rates affect the US dollar value of the Group's revenues and costs that are denominated in foreign currencies.

The Group's non-US dollar currency-linked revenues was 62.1 percent and 60.5 percent of gross revenues for the periods ended September 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. Foreign currency-linked revenues include the following: (1) arrastre charges of MICT; and (2) non-US dollar revenues of international subsidiaries. ICTSI incurs expenses in foreign currency for the operating and start-up requirements of its international subsidiaries. Concession and lease fees payable to port authorities in certain countries are either denominated in or linked to the US dollar.

The table below provides the currency breakdown of the Group's revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2025:

2.8.2 Interest Rate Risk

The Group's exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates (cash flow interest rate risk) relates primarily to the Group's bank loans and is addressed by a periodic review of the Group's debt mix with the objective of reducing interest cost and maximizing available loan terms. The Group also enters into interest rate swap agreements in order to manage its exposure to interest rate fluctuations.

2.8.3 Liquidity Risk

The Group manages its liquidity profile to be able to finance its working capital and capital expenditure requirements through internally generated cash and proceeds from debt and/or equity. As part of the liquidity risk management, the Group maintains strict control of its cash and makes sure that excess cash held by subsidiaries are up streamed in a timely manner to the Parent Company. The Group also monitors the receivables and payables turnover to ensure that these are at optimal levels. In addition, it regularly evaluates its projected and actual cash flow information and continually assesses the conditions in the financial market to pursue fund raising initiatives. These initiatives may include accessing short-term and long-term bank loan facilities, project finance loans/bonds and the capital markets.

ICTSI monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents and bank credit facilities deemed adequate to finance the Group's operations, ensure continuity of funding and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.

There are no other known trends, demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that will materially affect the Group's liquidity.
